

DANCE LINKS GET CONNECTED

A dance education source from Backstage Coach Productions.

Compiled by Gina Sawyer

My goal is to get you connected in the world of dance. The purpose of Dance Links is to save you time from searching the Internet and the numerous paid-for advertisement directories, so that you can get connected faster to the services and items you need. I have researched hundreds of dance domains including those belonging to large corporations, non profit organizations, and small businesses. In some cases the domains chosen will take you away from the mainstream of highly commercialized sites and introduce you to new possibilities shared with independent entrepreneurs, artists, and producers of dance goods. I believe that numerous dance enthusiasts will benefit from this web of dance resources.

YOU WILL DISCOVER . . .

- who offers dance scholarships
- how to find auditions for a music video, a Broadway show, or a cruise line
- where to learn the Brain Dance and who promotes the integration of multiple intelligences in dance curriculum
- whose education site hosts an on-line video dictionary of ballet terminology
- how to determine what makeup Nijinsky wore in Scheherazade
- what company can produce a complete recital with music, sound, and lights
- where to go for a life-size standup cut-out of Elvis
- how to find ready-made dance logos for t-shirts, programs, and tickets
- what kind of DVD's are available for dance education, choreography, and training
