

For the Director

In addition to a more confident and technically proficient dance team, we share tools of the trade to get you going for the upcoming season.

Our break out sessions revolve around these topics: preparing for football and contest season, finding music, setting choreography, organizing tryouts, and developing team spirit. Break-out sessions are totally interactive and unpretentious. We can talk, move, listen, and learn. Your choice.

Across-the-floor and center work is taught daily. Notes are created for the director that include not only these exercises, but also the terminology and definitions.

We will communicate together to create a camp curriculum that truly meets your needs versus doing what was done at the camp taught the week before.

team goals."*
